

WESTERN METHOD OF GETTING MONEY. TURKEY AND BULGARIA MUST LET UP.

DARING DEED OF MASKED ROBBERS.

Armed With Rifles

Four Bold Highwaymen Attempt to Rob the Atlantic Express.

One Robber Instantly Killed

And the Remaining Three Put to Flight by the Plucky Express Messenger—Engineer of the Train Seriously Wounded by Same Bullet That Killed the Desperado.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 24.—The Atlantic express, on the Oregon railroad and Navigation Co., which left here at 8:15 o'clock last night, was held up by four masked men, an hour later near Corbett station, 21 miles east of this city. One of the robbers was shot and killed by express messenger Fred Kerner, and engineer Ollie Barrett was seriously wounded, by the same bullet. After the shooting, the robbers fled without getting any booty.

Two of the highwaymen boarded the train at Troutdale, a station 18 miles east of here, and after the train had got under way, they crawled over the tender and covering the engineer and fireman with revolvers, told them to stop at mile post 21, which is near Corbett station. When the train slowed down, two more men appeared. Two of the robbers compelled the engineer to get out of the cab, and accompany them to the express car, while the others watched the fireman. The men carried several sticks of dynamite, and when they came to the baggage car, thinking it was the express car, they threw a stick at the door. Express Messenger Kerner, heard the explosion and immediately secured his rifle and opened fire. The bullet pierced the heart of one of the robbers, and went through his body, entering the left breast of Engineer Barrett, who was just behind him. Barrett's wound is above the heart, and is not necessarily fatal. After the shooting, the other three robbers fled without securing any booty, and it is supposed they took to a boat which they had moored at the bank of the river. The point where the holdup occurred is on the bank of the Columbia river, and a precipitous mountain is on the other side of the bank. The easiest route of escape is by the river. The robber ordered Engineer Barrett to walk in front of him while approaching the baggage car, but he jumped behind him just before the shot from the express messenger's rifle was fired. The body of the dead robber was left behind on the track, and the wounded engineer was brought to this city.

Sheriff Story and four deputies left on a special train for the scene of the robbery at 12:45 a. m. The Oregon railroad and Navigation Co. offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest of the highwaymen.

Barrett is one of the oldest men on the road, having been in the employ of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Co. for twenty-five years. Messenger Kerner is known as one of the most determined men in the employ of the express company.

ENGINEER

Barrett Tells His Story of the Daring Holdup.

Ollie L. Barrett, the wounded engineer, who was brought to Portland, and taken to the hospital, early this morning, told the following story of the holdup:

"About a mile beyond Troutdale, two masked men climbed in on the blind baggage over the tender and through the gangway into the engine, covering both fireman and myself with their revolvers. They ordered me to run the train to twenty-one mile post, and stop at a light, which would be found there. At twenty-one mile post, two other masked men came out of the brush, and joined us, as the train stopped. The newcomers ordered us off the engine. The bandits who had been hiding in the brush, carried two long willow poles, on the ends of which were sticks of dynamite.

"These were placed in our hands, and the fireman and I were ordered to go back to the express car, and order the messenger to open the door. If he did not, we were to use the dynamite and blow it open.

The bandits kept up a fusillade of shots toward the passengers to keep their heads inside the windows. We were compelled to proceed to the baggage car, where I called out to the messenger: "It is Barrett. Open the door, don't shoot."

"This demand had no effect, and the bandits took the dynamite poles from our hands and placed them against the door of the car, after lighting long fuses. We were ordered back to the engine and to stay there with the bandits until the dynamite blew the door open.

As soon as the sound of the explosion had died away, I was ordered to go ahead of the party, back toward the car. Instead of obeying orders, I stepped behind a rather slender man, one of the bandits, and the fireman followed me. The taller man was in the rear. We were several feet from the express car, when the messenger fired and killed the robber in front of me. The bullet we afterwards found, went through his heart and then struck me in the left shoulder. As I felt the bullet strike me, I called to the taller man that I was shot, and that my left arm had gone. The tall man told me it was all right; that I might go back to the engine with the fireman and go ahead. We examined the small man first, however, and found that he was killed."

ANOTHER

Bandit Found With a Charge of Buckshot in His Head.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 24.—Shortly after the express train bearing the sheriff's posse arrived at the scene of the attempted holdup of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation train, near Corbett, one of the gang of outlaws was found at 2:30 o'clock this morning, a short distance up the track, badly wounded, from a charge of buckshot, which he had received in the head. He was placed on board the sheriff's special train, which was turned around and headed for Portland. The bandit said his name was Jams Connor, of Portland, but refused to make known the names of the other bandits or the direction in which they went.

FATAL HEAD-ON COLLISION.

Orders Misunderstood, and Two Men Killed Outright—Two Others Fatally Injured.

New Philadelphia, Ohio, Sept. 24.—A disastrous head-on freight collision occurred late last night on the Kiondike coal branch line of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh road east of here, resulting in the death of two men and the fatal injury of two others.

The dead:—McWilliams, fireman, Cleveland;—Buchanan, Wellsville. Engineer McElroy and brakeman Mark Lambert, of New Philadelphia, received injuries that will probably prove fatal. It is stated that a misunderstanding of orders caused the wreck.

SIXTY UNIONS WILL SUPPORT MARBLE WORKERS.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Sixty unions having a membership of nearly 50,000 affiliated with the Building Material Trades Council, will, according to Secretary Deutsch of the council, support the Marble Workers Union against the effort of the National Marble Dealers Union to maintain "Open shops."

Action pledging support was taken at a special meeting of the council today. The manufacturers' plan to open their plants tomorrow with non-union men, say the union officials, will involve a strike of union firemen and machinists at each of the association shops where non-union men appear for work.

FUSILLADE OF SHOTS FIRED.

Policeman and Suspicious Negro Character Both Received Wounds That Are Fatal.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 24.—In a running exchange of shots on the street this morning, policeman John Donovan, 28 years old, and Samuel Archer, a negro, were fatally wounded.

Both are in a hospital, and the physicians say they cannot recover. Donovan observed the negro acting suspiciously, and attempted to arrest him. Archer fled, and was pursued by Donovan, and three other policemen. The policemen discharged their revolvers after the fugitive, who returned the fire, one bullet from his pistol struck Donovan in the abdomen. Archer was shot four times, once over the heart.

IT WILL BE SOLD TO PAY THE DEBTS.

Chardon, O., Sept. 24.—The Burton Handle factory, employing 40 men, which has been operated by a receiver since the failure of Boughton, Forbes & Co., has been ordered sold by the court, to satisfy the claims of creditors. It was Burton's one industry, and the blow to the town is severe.

WILL RAISE PRICE OF A GOOD LOOK.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 24.—The annual meeting of the National Window Glass Jobbers' Association is being held at the hotel Cadillac here, today. About fifty members of the association from all parts of the country are present.

NOTHING IS KNOWN OF FATE OF THE CREW.

Delaware Breakwater, Del., Sept. 24.—The fishing schooner Griswold I. Kenny, which put in here today, reports that the fishing schooner Edith Peterson, sank on Wednesday, Sept. 16, during the severe storm, one and a half miles off Five Fathom Bank Lightship. Nothing is known of the fate of the crew.

STRANGE TALE OF A LAWYER.

Kept Prisoner for One Month, to Prevent His Divulging a Secret.

New York, Sept. 24.—Kept a prisoner in a factory in this city for a month and stupefied by drugs so that he could make no effort to escape to prevent him from exposing the secrets of a patent process for cleaning furs, is the remarkable story told by Ernest C. Webb, a lawyer, when he was rescued by a policeman who was armed with a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Webb, charging her husband with abduction. The wife's charge was a ruse to get into the factory as several previous attempts had failed.

According to Webb's statement he was induced about a month ago to go to the place and has since been unable to leave it. He was locked in a back room on an upper floor, where his meals were brought and considerable quantities of whiskey, which he declares contained drugs. The police found Webb lying on a roll of blankets alongside some machinery which was not in use. He was in a disheveled condition and had every appearance of having been under the influence of drugs.

WEBB

Did Not Want to Return Home, Says Manufacturer.

New York, Sept. 24.—Julius Treloehr, a manufacturing furrier, in whose factory in east Eleventh street, Lawyer Ernest E. Webb alleges he was kept a prisoner for a month, said today that Webb had aided him in a legal contest over a patent, and that the allegation that Webb had been kept a prisoner was absurd.

"Webb did not want to return home, and I let him sleep in the factory; but he was out every day," added Mr. Treloehr.

TAMMANY LEADER MAKES STATEMENT.

There Is no Doubt But That Convention Will Select Ticket All Democrats Can Support. MacClellan Highly Favored.

New York, Sept. 24.—When the statement made yesterday, by Hugh McLaughlin, leader of the King's county, (Brooklyn) democracy was shown to Chas. F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, Mr. Murphy made the following statement:

"Mr. McLaughlin, whom I respect very much, is certainly entitled to an expression of his views. I would not, as an individual, or as a representative of Tammany Hall, ever recommend the candidacy of any man who would stand for graft or any other kind of dishonesty.

"As I have said before, Col. MacClellan, in my opinion is as strong a candidate as any of the gentlemen who have been mentioned up to the present time, and if nominated and elected would fill the office of mayor to the satisfaction of the people of our city.

"There is no doubt in my mind that the convention will select a ticket that no democrat need hesitate to support.

"In the city democratic convention which will nominate a candidate for mayor, Tammany Hall will have a majority of the delegates, Manhattan and the Bronx having more votes than Brooklyn, Queen and Richmond combined."

BARABAS THE JUDAS.

Session of Diet Was Marked by Stormy Scenes and Sitting Adjourned.

Leader of Kossuth Party Cried Out, "We Don't Believe the Emperor King, Frances Joseph," and Thereupon the Deputies Sat on Him by Vote of Censure.

Budapest, Hungary, Sept. 24.—The session of the diet today was marked by stormy scenes, which became so boisterous as to necessitate its suspension. Barabas, a member of the Kossuth party, went so far as to say his party no longer believed the statements of the Emperor King, Frances Joseph. Charges made against Premier Hedervary, of complicity in the Szapary bribery scandal started the disturbance, and then Franz Kossuth handed in an address to the Emperor King, complaining against His Majesty's recent army order, and the interpretation given to the constitution in yesterday's Receipt. When Count Hedervary rose to reply, the uproar was so great that he was unable to make his voice heard. The deputies left their seats and crowded upon the floor of the house and the sitting had to be suspended.

On the resumption of business, Count Hedervary was speaking when he was suddenly interrupted by Barabas, who shouted:

"We don't believe the king." Thereupon, all the deputies, irrespective of party, rose, with shouts of "Bogus," "Traitor," "Out with him," etc. Barabas tried to apologize, but his colleagues refused to permit it, and a vote of censure upon him was recorded on the minutes.

SUPPORT OF POWERS

Is Denied Bulgaria and Turkey by the Russian Government

In the Event That Either of Them Secretly or Openly Seeks to Oppose the Macedonian Reform Scheme—France Doubts the Sincerity of the Sultan.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 24.—The Russian government has issued an official note reiterating that the attitude of the powers in regard to the Austro-Russian reform scheme, for Macedonia is unchanged, and that, consequently neither Turkey or Bulgaria can expect support from any quarter in the event of open or secret resistance to that scheme.

The government, after pointing out that the suggested reforms were at the outset attended with good results, continues:

"These, however did not satisfy the Macedonian committees which have sprung up in the slave states. The probability which had become apparent that the Christian population would calm down under the influence of reforms deprived these committees of all favorable ground for the realization of their revolutionary plans. While proclaiming that their object was the protection of their co-religionists against Turkish opposition these committees in reality seek to attain their selfish aim of modifying the administration system in the province so as to convert it into a Bulgarian Macedonia, to the detriment of the rights and privileges of the other Christian peoples, whose interest is equally dear to orthodox Russia.

As the leaders found no support among the non-Bulgarian element in Macedonia they exerted themselves to raise a general insurrection by cruel outrages and terrorism in order to hinder the introduction of the projected reforms. Unhappily in spite of the efforts of the Sofia government the Macedonian agitation spread considerably in Bulgaria itself, finding support among those who mistakenly reckoned that the outbreak there, caused would compel Russia to alter her program and proclaim herself the champion of the unrealizable plans of the leaders of the revolution. This fatal conception against which Russia gave incessant warnings has brought upon the Christians in the Turkish vilayets grievous oppression which will only end when the incursion of insurgents from Bulgaria and the revolutionary activity of the committees cease. Not until then can the application of the reforms needed by the population and by which they will be protected from Turkish atrocities, be insisted upon, the most energetic endeavors having failed to allay the fanaticism of the Mussulemans."

"In view of thickening complications the Russian and Austrian governments have reiterated their views to this effect, both at Sofia and at Constantinople, and acting on suggestion of Austria, all the governments of the powers who signed the treaty of Berlin, have instructed their representatives at Turkey and Bulgaria to emphasize their full unanimity in the Austro-Russian work of pacifying the Balkans so as to remove all misconceptions of possible assistance in the event of dangerous enterprises, these representatives have been instructed to make a declaration to the governments of Turkey and Bulgaria as follows:

"The present state of affairs in the Turkish vilayets which is due to the criminal intentions of committees and revolutionary bands does not alter the attitude of the powers in regard to the programme of action advanced early in the year by the two powers most interested. Consequently, neither Turkey nor Bulgaria can rely on the support of any power in the event of open or secret opposition to the realization of this scheme."

"The imperial government hopes this new warning will convince Turkey as well as Bulgaria of the futility of any attempt to avoid the fulfillment of the demands made upon them, and cause them to take all the measures in their power, for the repression of the disturbances in the Balkan peninsula, which can only have the most serious consequences for both the Ottoman Empire and Bulgaria."

FRANCE

Doubts Sincerity of Portes Reply to Bulgarian Note.

Paris, Sept. 24.—The French foreign office officials doubt the sincerity of the portes's reply to the Bulgarian note believing it is merely a maneuver to impress the powers with the idea that Turkey is doing her utmost to effect a settlement before going to war. A similar impression seems to prevail at Sofia, since Bulgaria, in answering, requires Turkey to cease mobilizing, stop the massacres and withdraw her troops from near the frontier before she will consider the proposals.

INSURGENTS

Are Successfully Holding Strong Positions, and Casualties Are Light.

Constantinople, Sept. 24.—The battle of Kresna Pass, according to the latest advices received here, is still in progress. The insurgents are successfully holding strong positions and their casualties are slight, only a score being killed or wounded, while the Turks, up to the present, have lost five officers and 320 men killed or wounded.

Part of the British squadron has arrived at Suda Bay, Island of Crete, and is held in readiness in case of developments in the Balkan situation.

TROOPS

Enraged at Their Loss, Burn and Pillage Villages.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 24.—According to a telegram received here today from Kostendil, (43 miles from Sofia) six hundred Turks were killed in a fight at Kotehani, Sept. 18. The Turkish force numbered 7,000. After the fight, the troops, enraged at their losses, pillaged and burned a number of Bulgarian villages.

ALL OPENED SHORT HANDED

Works Are Picketed, and Men Refuse to Recognize Open Shops.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—None of the four firms, members of the National Marble Dealer's Association who have maintained a lockout of their employees since Monday, was able to open full-handed today, although all undertook to resume work. The places are picketed by the marble workers' union the men having thus far refused to accept the terms of the association, which had announced that the "open shop" policy would be observed. Members of the several firms declined to make an estimate of the percentage of men who have returned to work.

CHIEF WILKIE OF THE SECRET SERVICE

Will Personally Investigate the Making of Money in Pennsylvania State Prison. Not Likely Makers Will Escape.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 24.—Chief Wilkie of the United States secret service arrived here today from Washington to make a personal investigation of the counterfeiting recently brought to light in the state penitentiary here. Chief Wilkie conferred with Griffin of the local secret service bureau, and U. S. District Attorney Holland. When asked if any arrests were to be made Mr. Wilkie replied that the investigation had not been completed, but added: "It is not likely that any of those connected with the case will escape arrest and punishment."

BEAVERS IS PUSHING MACHEN'S BIG RECORD.

On Two New Indictments He Again Surrenders Himself, and Gives Bond in Sum of $2,500. Explicit Charges.

New York, Sept. 24.—George W. Beavers has surrendered himself, and was arraigned before United States Commissioner Ridgeway on the two indictments recently returned against him in Washington for alleged conspiracy in connection with contracts between the Bundy Clock Company, now known as the International Time Recording Company, of Birmingham, N. Y., and the post office department in connection with which Senator George Green of Birmingham, was indicted. Commissioner Ridgeway fixed the examination for next Wednesday and Beavers was released on $10,000 bond on one of the two indictments, being permitted to go on his own recognizance upon the second indictment. It was agreed by counsel to accept a Baltimore Bonding company as security and to reduce Beavers' bonds on the two pending indictments from $5,000 to $2,500 each.

WILL CURTAIL THE OUTPUT OF PIG IRON.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 24.—The Chronicle Telegraph says it was learned that a movement is on to curtail the production of pig iron, beginning Oct. 1st. The Bessemer Furnace Association which controls a number of furnaces in the Monongah and Shenandoah valleys has consented to the arrangement, but the details have not yet been agreed upon. It is certain, however, that a number of furnaces in the valley will be put out of blast on the first of the month, but the number has not been decided.

A falling off in the demand for pig iron is an indication of a falling off in the demand for finished iron and steel products. It has been suggested that the only way to keep the mills running through the winter months, is to look for new markets, and the prospects for business abroad are being considered.

DORCAS SOCIETY.

The Dorcas Society will meet with Mrs. C. M. Stoppard, 525 east Market street, Friday afternoon. Election of officers for next year and payment of dues for year ending Sept. 30, 1903. A full attendance is requested.

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

THE STAGE.

Swathed in the immortal glory of patriotic reminiscence, enhanced by the retrospective tenderness of boyhood school days, "Paul Revere," a play with an original well conceived plot, with Longfellow's idyllic poem as a foundation, comes to the Faurot opera house tonight. Contrary, however, to the poem, the play has for its most salient feature a charming love story, with the revolution in the background, and only the individual heroism of Paul Revere and his immediate compatriots is exploited.

Richard Buhler, long to be remembered as the handsome, lovable Marcus Venturius in the original production of "Quo Vadis" is the star and is aptly fitted to the soldier lover in "Paul Revere." Maud Truax, the leading woman, is a sweet, lovable, heroic worthy of the love of a man like Paul Revere. The supporting cast is excellent and the scenery specially provided is of great beauty and historical interest.

"When the Bell Tolls" is the uncommon title of the beautiful romantic play which will be produced at the Faurot opera house Saturday, matinee and night. The title has been taken from the venerable Roberts, the monk of St. Bernard, who in the final act of this successful play, in answer to a query, as the Bell of St. Bernard is tolling, "What means the tolling of that bell?" He replies, "Scarcely a day passes but some poor traveler is lost amid the snowstorms that rage around this old monastery. The dogs of St. Bernard, imbued with human intelligence by the great Creator, go forth on their errand of mercy when the bell tolls."

In the great Plateau Scene, the full-blooded St. Bernard dogs, led by Champion Seger, are used.

Emergency Medicines.
It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by all druggists.

LIMA

Will Entertain the Singers

Who Compete

For the Prizes in Solos and Chorus.

Fall Eisteddfod to Be Held at Congregational Church in November.

Twenty Numbers on the Program Offer Opportunities for the Best of Voices Representing Northwestern Ohio.

It is a little early to offer extravagant words of praise for a musical event, which is to take place in Lima, early in November, but it is well to keep in mind the fact that the Northwestern Ohio Eisteddfod is to be held at the Congregational church, Wednesday evening, Nov. 11.

The program offers 20 numbers for solos, quartettes and choruses with prizes ranging from $2 to $25, and, based on previous events the adjudicator, Prof. Geo. M. Evans, musical bachelor, will have to use that niceness of decision which has earned for him a place in the world of unprejudiced critics.

The selection for mixed voices is the "Star of Descending Night," for not less than twenty voices, and all who compete, whether in solos or chorus, must have furnished their names as a body or individual to the corresponding secretary, by November 4th.

The program has been carefully arranged, and offers the following numbers for those who care to enter into competition:

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hammett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by all druggists.

SPEYER & CO. BANKERS

GIVE FORMAL NOTICE.

New York, Sept. 24.—The formal circular of Speyer & Co., announcing the sale of the Consolidated Lake Superior Co., was given out this afternoon. The securities of the subsidiary companies, held by the Consolidated Lake Superior Company, with various notes, made by the subsidiary companies in course of the advancement on money on the loan of Speyer & Co., these notes endorsed by the Consolidated Co., are to be sold at public auction, on Oct. 1, at 161 Broadway, New York. The terms of the sale are that the securities, etc., must be bid for and purchased in one parcel, and Speyer & Co. reserve the right to bid in the properties offered for sale.

John S. Freeman, counsel in this city for the Consolidated Lake Superior Co., made the following statement: "There is a movement on foot in which a majority of the stockholders will, I believe unite to save the property, and I think a proposition looking to the re-organization of the company, is now under way, and will be agreed to by the stockholders. I think the new plan will be made public within the next day or two."

It was learned today that the plan provides for a new company capitalized at from $35,000,000 to $40,000,000, and it is, proposed to raise that amount by a bond issue of $5,000 and an assessment of $3 per share. It is understood the officers of the company are now in communication with financial interests in Canada and New York, looking to the carrying out of this plan.

The stockholders protective committee have approved the proposed plan or re-organization, which they say is satisfactory to the interests they represent.

SHE WAS WRECKED OFF COAST OF NOME.

Weddings Among Occurrences

In South Lima

Yesterday Evening in One Hour's Time.

Ed. Neiswander and Maude Wolfe Were Parties to One,

While Ray Furry and Miss Mayme Fesselhauf Were the Principals of the Other. Other Items of Interest.

Young women may avoid much sickness and pain, says Miss Alma Pratt, if they will only have faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months."

"I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness."—Miss ALMA PRATT, Holly, Mich.—$5000. (Forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.)

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO YOUNG WOMEN.
All young girls at this period of life are earnestly invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; her advice is freely and cheerfully given; her address is Lynn, Mass.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls Mrs. Pinkham is inclined to the belief that our girls are pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries; less learning and more health needed.

blue silk, was attended by Miss Mayme Ward, of Spencerville; while Reynold Eberswine, of Sandusky, was the groom's best man. Many useful and pretty gifts were bestowed upon this pair, who are now snugly quartered at a previously provided home, on Tanner avenue. Guests from out of town were Mrs. Conrad Eberswine and children, Reynold, Chester, Amelia and Laura, of Sandusky; Miss Lorena Scholt, of Sandusky and Miss Josephine Ward, of Spencerville.

Music for the Girls.
The local managers of the American Tobacco Co., at the corner of Main and Elm streets, have installed a piano on the third floor of their factory, (the machine room) and every afternoon one hour is devoted to music, which is enjoyed by the employees.

Pine Street Drug Store.
Pine street is to have a drug and school supply store, J. B. Curry's room at 445 south Pine street to be the location. Hunter and Allen are the proprietor's names.

Its A Girl.
Leo Daly, formerly a resident of Second street, but who now lives west of Elida, was in the city yesterday, telling about a new girl baby that arrived at his home, Tuesday night.

Elected Officers.
Yesterday afternoon, the Ladies' Aid Society of Grace M. E. church, met and elected officers for the ensuing year. For president, Mrs. J. E. Coleman, vice president, Mrs. N. Brown; secretary, Mrs. W. J. Hagerman; and treasurer, Mrs. W. P. Mathie.

Surprise Party.
A very pleasant surprise was the one given Mrs. Cora Muller, of 318 south Elizabeth street, Tuesday evening by about twenty friends. Music, games and luncheon were the enjoyable features of the occasion.

Smile Obsequies.
The funeral of Mrs. George Smith, who died Tuesday evening, will be held at the residence, 326 east Second street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Local News.
Benj. Shively, of McGriff's barber shop, is visiting friends at Kossuth. Frank Hagerman and wife, are visiting at Troy, today.

A special display of Dress Hats at Van Horn's south side Millinery store, Saturday.

CONTESTS

Were a Disappointment Yesterday.

The Unexpected Action of Criss Cross to Blame

For Spelling What Promised to Be an Exciting Race, and the Lucky Ones Picked Up Easy Money.

As was briefly stated in the Times-Democrat yesterday evening, Nina B. and Vernie Rice, were the winners in the two match races at the Driving Park, but the events lacked the excitement which attended the contest between Lady Lusk and Ruth Parks, the day before.

The race on which four hundred dollars had been staked, besides nearly as much in the betting by others than the owners, proved a fiasco. Nina B. L. being made a present of the 3/4 mile dash. To the surprise of everybody, Criss Cross, with a good lead quit almost dead the first time to the wire, and, before the crowd realized it, Nina B. L. was almost out of hailing distance. The owner of Criss Cross explains the action as due to the horse having been accustomed to a mile track, and pulled up when the grand stand was reached the first time.

It was a sore disappointment to the crowd, which had increased in numbers, and especially to those who had pinned their faith and money on the quitter.

The 4 1/2 furlong dash between Irish Boy and Vernie Rice, did not offer any doubt as to the winner after the start was made. The mare got away in the lead and increased the distance to the goal, winning in a fashion too easy to raise a yell of approval. No more matches have been arranged, and horse-racing for the season is no doubt over in Lima.

RIFLE SHOT NOT INTENDED

To Take the Life of Wm. Rockefeller. Police Make a Wonderful Discovery.

New York, Sept. 24.—It has just been learned by the officers who are searching for the murderer of Orlando P. Dexter who was assassinated on his Adirondack estate a few days ago, that on the night previous, a house belonging to William Rockefeller, located near his summer cottage at Bay Point and occupied by his superintendent, and several of the patrolmen who guard his preserves, was fired at and struck by a bullet from a rifle.

The guards formerly slept in cottages located in different parts of the park but several of these were burned last spring by forest fires and since that time nearly all of the guards have slept in the large house occupied by the superintendent. It is not believed, however, that the shooting was an attempt on Rockefeller's life as it is well known that Mr. Rockefeller never sleeps in that house.

STEEL CORPORATION MAY CLOSE DOWN.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 24.—The United States Steel corporation may close all its sheet steel plants in the near future, unless the Amalgamated Association will consent to a reduction under the same plan as was agreed upon last fall. The reason for this attitude is an overstocked market, and the dullness of trade at this time of the year. Last year, the amalgamated association accepted a reduction of three per cent on all material made for foreign product. President T. J. Shaffer, of the amalgamated, stated that he felt sure that the limit would not be changed, and that existing conditions do not warrant it.

REGULAR QUARTERLY.

Boston, Sept. 24.—The directors of the Boston & Albany railroad today declared a regular quarterly dividend of two percent. The present board of directors was unanimously re-elected.

A PERTINENT QUESTION.

Puzzle: If a street railway company owns property worth $3,000,000, pays interest on $10,201,000 of bonds and dividends on $12,000,000 of stock, why can't it sell eight tickets for a quarter without cutting the wages of employees? Why not cut the dividends on watered stock and the interest on watered bonds instead?—Toledo News-Bee.

The above is respectfully referred for answer, to the faithful local republican adherent of Hanna's organ
"Finance."

Tom Johnson is asking Hanna the same question, and more too. He wants Hanna to tell the people why, when conditions are exactly similar with steam roads, as in the above cited case, there should not be a two cent a mile rate on Ohio railroads. But Hanna is not willing to answer.

Why he is not willing to answer, the people of Allen county will find out soon.

GAZETTE BOILER PLATE.

"Delight is added to the democratic heart every time the Johnson faithful are called upon to chip in to pay the bills for a Johnson test meeting, the red devil, etc. It is so nice to have a multi-millionaire candidate ask the little fellows who are not candidates to pay his campaign expenses."—Republican-Gazette.

The fellow who "writ" the above couldn't earn enough to contribute to anybody's campaign.

Tom Johnson is paying his own expenses, including gasoline, but suppose the penny-a-liner's statement was true, don't you think it would be a matter of personal pride to contribute as an individual to a campaign in behalf of your own protection? To be placed in the position of a giver to the cause of humanity against special privileges, than to accept, as Hanna, Herrick, and Dick are doing, contributions from the tariffed corporations, the funds for which were, under the cloak of protection, dishonestly collected from the individual?

MUST BE MAD.

Somebody is mad—the very first sign of weakness. That somebody is so furious he will not sign his name.
That somebody, this morning in
"Aunties Organ" anonymously said:
"We wish to serve notice on the official organ and all others that Mr.
Belch has not withdrawn, will not withdraw, and will be in the campaign every minute from now on. Amos Belch will be the next representative from this county, and don't you forget it."

We don't know to what official organ the sub-rosa author of the above refers. For all we know, it may mean Geo. Hall's political organ, or his Mason and Hamlin parlor organ. But, anyway, it was a real nice, dainty belch from someone who has lost his temper. Whenever your enemy gets his English going, and in big black type, fairly shouts: "And don't you forget it," there is going to be trouble for any school superintendent he champions; and for the sake of his own health and the health, happiness and comfort of his family, we would recommend that "Anonymous" puts a bride on his choler.

A CORPORATION ORGAN.

A weekly periodical devoted to business, is "Finance," published in Cleveland. In a late issue, it has the following things to say about Tom Johnson:

"Tom Johnson stands as the foe of the business interests of this country.
He is engaged in the hypocritical, demagogical business of arraying class against class, and of trying to deprive capital of its earnings. He is engaged in the business of trying to teach the world and the nation that the state of Ohio will not protect capital invested in this state. He may not admit this much, but that is what he is trying to do. He is a single-taxer and a socialist for everybody but himself. The issues involved in the election this fall are the same issues which sent Bryan to defeat in '96 and 1900. There is no difference. Bryan stood for repudiation, confiscation and a defiance of the courts. Tom L.
Johnson stands for the same cause.
If Tom L. Johnson could do what he wants to do, or pretends he wants to do, the city of Cleveland would suffer a financial depression from which it would take fifteen years to recover.
Now inasmuch as Mr. Johnson stands for Bryanism, stands for repudiation, stands for confiscation, his defeat this fall by an overwhelming majority will show to the country that Ohio is not for him nor the principles he advocates."

The above is worthy of contemplation, because of the trust air surrounding it.

To start with, there is an organ called "Finance," published in Cleveland. Its very name indicates the influence which controls it. Its history verifies it. In all the fights Tom Johnson has made in Cleveland for the people against franchise grabbers,
"Finance" has been with Hanna,
the prince and king bee of grabbers.
Since Johnson came into power, the people of Cleveland have had their rights protected in every piece of municipal legislation affecting them, even to the making of three cent
fares on street railways.

The Hanna organ, "Finance," opposed this measure. Is it any wonder therefore, that it should oppose Tom from an unpollitical stand point, and denounce him as a "foe to the business interests of the country," because he fights for the masses, and against the payment of dividends on enormously watered stocks in both electric and steam roads?

Mr. Johnson, for years, had large investments in street railways, and in some of them, he made handsome returns on his investments even when the fare was but three cents.

The charge that he is hypocritical,
and demagogical, is an over-stocked campaign cry with republicans. Mayor Tom's political and business life gives the lie to the above charge. The people of Cleveland have his times and ed it as untrue, and will again this fall.

That he is trying to deprive capital of its earnings, and teach the world and the nation that the state of Ohio will not protect capital invested in this state, is amusing.

If Tom Johnson is the single taxer, the republican press exploit him to be: If his one chief aim in this campaign is to put an tax on lands, what better field could there be for corporations and they have in the capital, than Ohio—a place where they could do business without paying taxes, except upon the land they occupy.

Sensible thinking men, know such a condition is not a question in this campaign. The democratic platform demands equitable taxation, and not that the small individual property owner shall pay more than his share
as he has done for years, under republican rule, and taxation laws. Tom Johnson advocates the taxation adjustment, which demands this—that all properties be classified for taxation, and that each pay its just proportion. He says that if elected, he will collect four million dollars more taxes annually from the railroads in Ohio, and deduct that much from the small individual tax payers. Collecting taxes from railroads isn't collecting it entirely off land, is it?

And Tom Johnson's promises are always made good.

Tom Johnson does stand as a defiance to some courts—those that are under the control of Hanna, and do his bidding when injunctions are needed to defeat the will of the people, who are already sufficiently throttled without having the courts at their necks. Thirteen such injunctions have been granted at Hanna's request in Cleveland, during the past year,
and Tom Johnson is fighting them,
and will to the last ditch. He openly charges certain members of the supreme court with using their position to further their political advancement; he broadly charges Attorney-General Sheets with being a tool of Hanna, and corporations, and he does it with foundation on which to stand.

Is there anything hypocritical about that?

Publications influenced by corporation money, like "Finance," is, will add little to the strength of the republican campaign, and local subsidiary corporation controlled newspapers, by following such leads, will never land their editors in postoffices.

the suits appearing in court for the third time to air their marital troubles. Geo. Morris has secured the services of Welty and Downing to carry to a final issue his complaint against Emma Morris, his wife, who,
in this particular instance, is charged with desertion. The period of her absence extending beyond the three years period, provided by law.

An Unfaithful Wife.

Wm. E. Zimmerman vs Rosa Zimmerman, is the caption of the second case, the husband making the serious charge, in a petition filed by D. C.
Henderson, that his wife is in charge of a house of prostitution at Dayton.
They were married on the 12th of March, 1902, but only lived together until the following August. The wife is brought to answer also to the charge of adultery, but the plaintiff says he is unable to name those who would figure as correspondents.

ESCAPED DEATH BY A NARROW MARGIN.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 24.—An almost miraculous escape from death was that of Wm. Dyson, his wife and child, when a freight car tumbled from the approach to the Chesapeake and Ohio bridge, in Covington, Ky., early this morning, and crushed their dwelling, a small frame structure. Fortunately the car in its descent struck the rear part of the house and the occupants were sleeping in a front room. They were thrown out on the street, and only suffered slight bruises and cuts.
The car was derailed by a fallen beam.

Of Ministers

Representing the U. B.
Church.

Preliminary Meetings of the Sandusky Conference Held.

The Report for the Lima District
Was Submitted by Rev. A. W.

Ballinger, of This City, Yesterday.

The opening meeting of the Sandusky conference of the United Brethren church was held Tuesday evening in Bucyrus. Rev. F. P. Roscelot, pastor of the Memorial U. B. church, at Toledo, did not arrive in the city in time to deliver the opening sermon on account of the lateness of his train.
The meeting which was made of a tea-timonial nature, was conducted by Presiding Elder H. Doty, of Bowling Green. The music of the evening was conducted by Prof. Montgomery, of Toledo, who has charge of the entire musical arrangements of the conference.

Concerning the Wednesday morning
session, the Bucyrus Forum says:
"It opened at 9 o'clock with Bishop E.
B. Kephart, of Westerville, presiding.
Hymns were sung by the congregation and prayers were offered by Revs.
Kephart, of Westerville and Dr. Hensley, of Marion.

Rev. Hensley is a pioneer preacher of the United Brethren church of many years ago, having preached over a circuit three hundred miles in extent.
Bishop Kephart then delivered his address to the conference, touching upon matters of church discipline, financial conditions and other items of interest. He said his talk was given in a spirit of brotherliness and with nothing of fault finding. "Fault finding is not criticism," said the bishop. The remarks were received with evidences of lively satisfaction by the members.

The roll of delegates was then called.
It is anticipated that when all have arrived, that the number will reach three hundred. All the churches of Northwestern Ohio of this denomination representing a membership of 25,000 will be represented, each church being entitled to representation by its minister, and one lay delegate.

It was decided by vote to open the morning sessions of each day of the conference, by a half hour of devotion, beginning at 8 o'clock. Regular business of conference will begin at 8:30 in the morning, and at 1:30 in the afternoon.

Ballots were cast for recording and statistical secretaries to serve the conference during the week. The result was as follows:

Rev. F. P. Roscelot, of Toledo as recording secretary and Rev. A. C. Siddall, of the First U. B. church, of Bowling Green, as statistical secretary.

The appointment of the following committees closed the work of the morning session:

On devotion—H. Doty, E. E. Sword,
and A. J. Laughbaum.

On elder's orders—A. Smiley, E.

HEAVY GALE OVER THE LAKE.

Many Vessels Detained in Harbor, and Some Compelled to Return.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 24.—A fierce gale from the northwest raged over Lake Erie last night and caused an unusually heavy sea. A fleet of outward bound vessels was detained in the harbor until this morning when the storm subsided. The passenger steamer, State of Ohio, attempted to leave on her regular run for Toledo, last night, but was driven back by the storm and did not get away until this morning.

DENIED VENUE CHANGE.

New York, Sept. 24.—Justice Blanchard, in the supreme court today, denied the motion of Samuel Parks, and Timothy McCarthy, the walking delegates of the House Smiths and Bridge Men's union, for a change of venue in the four indictments against Parks, and one against McCarthy, all charging extortion.

PARK'S UNION GIVEN SEATS.

Fighting New Yorker Jubilant Over Success, But Refused to Talk.

President Buchanan's Annual Address to Association Was a Strong Appeal for It to Fight Against "Special Privileges."

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 24.—When the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers resumed their session today in their annual convention, it was again behind closed doors. Before the convention met, neither President Buchanan nor Samuel Parks would talk definitely of today's program. Nothing but routine matters were discussed. Delegate Parks was jubilant over the fact that his delegation had been seated, but he refused to intimate what attitude he would take in the proceedings now that he secured the upper hand. Robert E. Neidig, president of local union No. 2, of New York, who supported President Buchanan in sustaining that local would be expelled, said that this would not be done in convention, but by the union itself after the delegates had returned east. President Buchanan still refused to say what bearing the Parks matter would have on his candidacy. He would not state until later he said whether he would be a candidate. The election will not be held today as it probably not this week. President Buchanan will likely deliver his annual address some time during the afternoon.

At the morning session today the New York delegation entire was formally seated, but not without a final fight upon one of its members. Mulhoney, who was also seated. Mulhoney is a member of Union No. 46, of New York city, and a particular friend of Parks. His being seated made the victory of the Parks crowd complete.

Outside the convention Robert E. Neidig, the president of union No. 2 who was, yesterday, deposed because he had supported President Buchanan in suspending that local, said today:

"They will get it when I reach New York. In the convention Sam Parks had branded him a 'scab' and delegate Neidig had, it is said, made no retort.

The element that is stinging by Mr. Buchanan, is the backbone of the association.

BUCHANAN

Appeals For a Closer Union Between All Labor Organizations.

Kansas City, Mo. Sept. 24.—The following is a synopsis of the address of President Frank Buchanan.

"President Buchanan said he was glad to report, that notwithstanding numerous labor disturbances during the past year, the association is now stronger and larger than ever before. President Buchanan congratulated the association upon the peaceable settlement, at the Buffalo conference, last March, of the difficulty with the American Bridge Company.

The agreement then made with the Structural Iron Manufacturers and Erectors' Association, one of the most powerful associations of employers in the country, was most important, he said, "for the fight threatened the very existence of our organization."

He urged the necessity of every local union upholding this agreement and said:

"There is now a systematic and organized effort of the press throughout the country to discredit labor unions because of their indifference to contract obligations, and such is the force with which these agencies of capital use this point that few organizations can succeed if they are once made the target."

President Buchanan made several recommendations, urging among other things early affiliation with the American Federation of Labor.

"Capital," said he, continues to combine and consolidate, and it is necessary for trades' unions if they would maintain strength to combine with others in a like way.

President Buchanan asserted that within the last year government by injunction had assumed wider and more alarming proportions and recommended that the convention appoint a committee to advise with all the other organizations of the country for the purpose of effecting a conference to be held in the near future to consider definite action to be taken with respect to this great and growing evil.

In closing President Buchanan said:

"The ramifying influences of the great moneyed interests of the country have entered every field of our national life. These interests dictate our elections, they make and interpret our laws, and they prescribe the contentions of our existence. Intelligent co-operation is the secret of their power. Would we protect ourselves against their encroachments? Would we preserve the liberties guaranteed us by our constitution? Would we secure the full measure of the product of our toil? Would we create conditions of benefit to ourselves and promise for our children? Then we must set ourselves to the task, with the same intelligent co-operation that distinguishes the action of the employing classes. Nor must we be satisfied with fighting for merely higher wages and shorter hours. Trade unionism stands for more than this. It stands for the full exercise of citizenship. Trades' Unionism must exert itself to the utmost to uproot the evil of special privileges that is the responsible cause of the injustice that our fellow workmen suffer today. Let us work together toward that end."

The Elks will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening, and the regular lodge session will be followed by a clam chowder supper.

The dancing season was formally and very auspiciously opened by Prof. W. S. Clark, at the armory, last night. About 75 couples responded to the invitations that were issued, and the event was a very enjoyable one to all who attended. Excellent music was furnished by Oscar Frey's orchestra. A large frappe bowl occupied a conspicuous place at one end of the dance floor. The first autumn dancing party is scheduled to meet at the armory.

Mr. and Mrs. Atkins have made many friends since their coming, who are loath to lose them, but the change being an excellent promotion for Mr. Atkins in the railway world, the situation is accepted by them with as good grace as possible.

FARM AND GARDEN

ONIONS FOR MARKET.

How to Prepare Them for Topping.

The old way of topping onions by getting down on your knees or sitting on a low stool all day long is by the way of the late system of topping done by a man with a saw.

One year the correspondent of W. S. Story's (Chicago Times) learned late on a Saturday night that the Chicago Tribune man had sent an abstract of the message by mail for publication on the following Monday morning. As he knew that to be beaten on so important a matter meant discharge by the irascible Story, he put in all of the following Sunday trying to secure an abstract for himself. At about noon he got so close to a printed copy that he began to have hopes, but they were dashed to the ground when the custodian thereof refused an offer of $1.00 for the document.

Finally, at about 3 o'clock, the correspondent met a senator, a great friend of the president, to whom he poured out the complete story of his troubles. The senator did not believe he could be of service, but finally consented to take the correspondent with him to call upon the chief executive.

At first the president was adamant though he would not deny that the Chicago Tribune man had stolen a march on his rival. At last, being convinced that failure meant the close of his career's journalistic career, Mr. Hayes said:

"I can't send you to any one for a copy of the message, as you suggest. You can't be helped by any one but me, and I am crowded for time. But under the circumstances, I will outline the message briefly on condition that you keep the source of your information a secret. You must not take notes but write wholly from memory. I may repeat the exact phrasing of the message in part and that wouldn't do in your dispatch."

Then for the space of twenty minutes the president talked steadily the correspondent listening meanwhile as if his life depended upon good hearing and good memory. The result was a column and three-quarters in the Chicago Times the next morning and the newspaper man instead of discharge for the newspaper man.—Louisville Courier Journal.

SEATING A "SCOOP."

The Way President Hayes Once Saved a Newspaper Man.

President Hayes was generally counted on as a cold man by the correspondent, but there is one disquieting story of a "bribe" matter which when a Washington correspondent had been to find a vulnerable joint in the president's armor and succeeded completely.

Then, as now, great pains were taken to prevent premature publication of the president's message. At the same time it was the custom, which it is not now, for certain newspapers to print a forecast of the message a few days in advance. One year the correspondent of W. S. Story's (Chicago Times) learned late on a Saturday night that the Chicago Tribune man had sent an abstract of the message by mail for publication on the following Monday morning. As he knew that to be beaten on so important a matter meant discharge by the irascible Story, he put in all of the following Sunday trying to secure an abstract for himself. HOW BILL GOT TO BE SHERIFF.

Attorney Bill Barnes of Muddy Fork had filled nearly every other office in the Trigg county court house and now he was a candidate for sheriff on the republican side.

Bill was good at politics, knowing just how hard to slap a man on the back or to whom the bottle should be passed when electioneering, but he had made himself a bit unpopular with the big negro settlement that occupied a bottom near the county seat by refusing to take a hand in a negro baptizing over at the pond, and after a canvass among the voters of that section found them all to be really indifferent about his being elected. Some seemed not to care about voting at all the way things stood and others talked like they might scratch the ticket for one time.

Bill came back and bothered a good deal about this for it had always taken on this big bunch of negroes to bring down the republican side of the scales. Bill sat around with his chin in his hands in a dark study for a day or two, trying to think of some way to make things tumble his way on election day.

He had won $100 in an all-night poker game and he laid this little pile of poker winnings aside for a campaign purpose but it was a day or two before he could decide just what way he could make the $100 do the work among these 119 negro voters. Bill was a kind of a nag nothing in a quiet way and got the full name of every negro voter in that settlement. The night before election day he had a large wagon running for several hours at full tilt.

On election morning each of the hundred and nineteen negroes found stepping shyly around in his front yard a plump spring chicken with a red tag fastened to its neck with a blue ribbon. The tag bore the negro's name under which was added:

I won't scratch the ticket, don't you. Compliments of Bill Barnes, candidate for sheriff.

Bells Were Too Loud

A clergyman on his way to church one Sunday morning pulled up to rebuke an angler, says the London Globe. "Don't you hear the bells summoning you to church?" he asked. The fisherman put an inquiring hand to his ear. Encouraged the clergyman repeated the question. But once again the fisherman asked for a repetition and then again, and even yet again. Flushing from overmuch hawling, the parson was about to proceed on his way when the fisherman spoke. Very sorry, governor, he said, but them bloomin' bells makes such a hades of a clatter that I can't hear a word you say."

It makes the diseased kidneys sound so they will eliminate the poisons from the blood.

An Excellent Reason

No man shall refuse to drink with me without giving his reason, said the enraged Kentuckian to the mild faced gentleman beside him.

But I have two excellent reasons, pleaded the stranger.

Then name them.

In the first place I promised my mother upon her deathbed that never—never—

A FAMOUS WHISTLE.

The silver boatwain's whistle with which John Brown, the famous abolitionist, piped orders to his men while they were at Harper's Ferry, has been discovered in Washington. It is an ordinary boatwain's whistle, about nine inches in length and shows the polisher given it by long use.

When John Brown gathered his men around Harper's Ferry and began his preparation for seizing the arsenal, he instructed them to hide themselves in the forests of the mountains with the understanding that they should listen at sunrise and sunset for their orders, which would be piped through the boatwain's whistle. The men carried out his instructions to the letter, and for some days the people of Harper's Ferry, already in a state of intense excitement and fear because of the abolition movement, heard the mysterious pipings at Brown's headquarters. The notes would be taken up by the nearest of his followers and sent on over the mountains until the last of the band had received his shrill instructions. Nobody except John Brown's men understood the import of the signals.

When Brown was captured the whistle was taken from him by Lieutenant Stewart, who afterward became a lieutenant general in the confederate army. Stewart presented the whistle to a Colonel Washington, who in turn gave it to his friend, John Cassin, then a well known lawyer in this city. The whistle is now in the possession of Mrs. Mary A. Cassin, who lives in Georgetown.

John Brown told Lieutenant Stewart that he had had the whistle a long time and that he had used it in Kansas in his fights with the Missourians before he went to Harper's Ferry for the purpose of arming the negroes of Virginia. The officials of the Kansas Vigilance committee are endeavoring to obtain this relic of the great abolitionist but Mrs. Cassin does not want to part with her historic treasure. The whistle is in good condition, and its authenticity is not to be doubted, as Mrs. Cassin has letters from several persons who took part in the capture, prosecution and execution of John Brown to attest the truth of its history.—(Washington Cor. New York World).

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Every doctor ought to know it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by H. F. Vorkamp, corner Main and North streets, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. ITS NAME IS ITS FAME
LIFE PLANT
THE greatest of all known remedies for the positive cure of all diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER, KIDNEYS and BLOOD. It is nature's own remedy and acts in accordance with her laws.
Do you suffer from INDIGESTION—are you distressed after eating—does a torpid liver make you feel miserable—eat of sorts—at variance with the world? Do the kidneys fail to perform their duty, giving backache and general lassitude? Are you all worn out?
LIFE PLANT will relieve quickly and cure permanently—no disappointment—no failure—it has cured thousands of others—it will cure you.
Sec. A. H. Merchant, Pastor M. E. church at Prospect, O., writes under date July 10, 1900: "I take pleasure, and do not hesitate to recommend Life Plant as an excellent remedy for Liver and Kidney difficulties. Mrs. Merchant desires to bear testimony to the healing virtues of Life Plant, as a sure and certain remedy for Rheumatism."

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound in the ears, imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

MEETING OF DEMOCRACY

To Be Addressed in this City by Hon.
John H. Clarke.

Democratic Nominee for United States Senator and Hon. William T. Mooney to Speak in the Opera House Tuesday Evening, October 6th.

The democratic county executive committee received a communication from Hon. Charles P. Salen, chairman of the state executive committee, announcing that Hon. John H. Clarke, the democratic candidate for United States senator, has been assigned to speak in this city on the evening of Tuesday, October 6. The local committee immediately engaged the Faurst opera house for the meeting and forwarded an invitation to Judge William T. Mooney to be present at the meeting and assist Mr. Clarke as one of the speakers of the evening.

Mr. Clarke is one of the most able speakers in the country and his address here on state and national political issues will be of interest to every citizen of the city and county.

The democratic executive committee has organized by electing the following officers: J. C. Ridenour chairman, J. N. Hutchinson, vice chairman; J. W. Beall, secretary, and A. G. Lutz, treasurer.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24.—Commissioner Richards, of the general land office today, named Nov. 10 next, at 9 a. m., as the date of the opening to settlement of the three quarters of a million of acres of ceded Chippewa lands, in Minnesota, recently segregated from the timber land of that reservation.

EPILEPSY IS BEING CURED.

New York Doctors Claim They Have Discovered Remedy in X Ray.

New York, Sept. 24.—A case of epilepsy, heretofore considered an incurable disease is responding to X ray treatment at a hospital in this city. The experimenters do not assert that the cure is certain but say they are convinced that it is by far the most successful treatment yet attempted. The patient, a girl of 16, has been subject to epileptic attacks some times twice a day since she was ten years old. At that time she had a severe attack of diphtheria. The right arm became partly paralyzed and epilepsy developed. Until she began to receive the X ray treatment, bromides and other remedies failed to relieve her. The new treatment is being used three times a week, the girl sitting with a powerful ray 2 feet above and below her head. The attacks are now 16 or 17 days apart and her condition generally is much improved.

Another Pretty Country Wedding
in Which Miss Margaret Brown
and Mr. Wm. Tapscott
Were the Principals.

Last evening at eight o'clock, at Westminster, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Biddinger, thirty near relatives and intimate friends witnessed a very pretty wedding. The home was artistically decorated with white roses, carnations and fern, and promptly at the appointed hour, Rev. G. B. Garner, pastor of the First Christian church, of Lima, took his place in the front parlor and the bride Miss Martha Biddinger, became the wife of Mr. Daniel W. Mikesell. The bride's gown was very dainty, being made of white Persian lawn, trimmed with Mechlin lace insertion, and her bouquet was of snowy bride's roses.

A good supper of autumn delicacies followed the congratulations.

The young couple will remain this week at Westminster and will then be at home to their friends in a pleasant little home at 242 north Jameson avenue. The guests from out of town were: Mrs. Mary E. Mikesell, Miss Ethel Eckhardt, Miss Povenmire, Mr. Roland Mikesell, Mr. Edward Mikesell, Mrs. Cora Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mowen, Mr. and Mrs. John Shank, of Lima, and Mrs. Rachel Killian.

Tapscott-Brown.

At high noon yesterday, a very pretty wedding took place at the pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, one mile northeast of Westminster, the bride being their daughter Margaret, and the man of her choice, Mr. Wm. Tapscott. The parlors were all in festive attire, with choice flowers, and a wedding march announced the bridal party. The bride wore a beautiful gown of sheer white organdy, trimmed with lace and ribbons. Her sister was her bridesmaid, and also wore a lovely white dress.

A royal wedding breakfast of numerous courses was served to the one hundred guests in attendance.

The groom will soon have a fine home ready for his bride, on the Tapscott farm, near Perry Chapel, and today, the young couple are receiving the warm congratulations of relatives and friends at a reception given by the groom's father, Mr. Joseph Tapscott, at his home, three miles east of this city.

RECEPTION

Tendered Bride and Groom
at Calkin's Home.

Last evening, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Calkins, of 337 east High street, gave a very delightful reception, honoring a newly wedded couple, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin E. Allen, of Cincinnati, who were married, yesterday morning, at 10 o'clock by Rev. M. Eisenlohr, Lutheran minister. About forty guests were in attendance at the reception, and many of them spent the evening playing cards, and other games. An appetizing wedding feast was served at tables beautifully decorated with roses, carnations and fern. The bride and groom will for a week, visit with Mrs. Calkins, who is the groom's mother, and will then return to Cincinnati, and will be at home after October 1st, at 3031 Concordia street, Avondale.
